

Associates

Gen2

Last Modified: 20/10/2025

Overview	Response
Your relationship with Gen2 continues unchanged	Everything you value about working with Gen2 stays exactly the same. Gen2 continues to operate as a separate entity, maintaining our expertise and specialised focus on technical training. Your existing contacts and the support you receive remain unchanged.
Your contract stays secure	No action needed from you – your contract continues seamlessly. Your contract with Gen2 remains unchanged. From 31 October 2025, Gen2 will become part of City & Guilds Limited, which is joining the PeopleCert group. We'll assume you wish to continue working with us unless you notify us otherwise – there's nothing you need to do.
Your expenses continue as normal	Claim your project-related expenses as you always have. There's no change to the way project-related expenses are managed. Our administrative processes and bank details remain the same.
Training programmes continue seamlessly	The specialist technical training you deliver remains exactly as it is. There's no impact on our training programmes. We continue to maintain our specialised approach to technical training and industry-specific solutions across all our sectors.
Your Associate relationship remains valued	Gen2's relationship with our Associates is unchanged. We continue to maintain separate Associate relationships, and we're committed to the same high level of service you've come to expect from us.
Your support team is still here	The same people, ready to help. Your existing contacts remain your trusted partners. For any questions, please reach out: • Email: Chloe.O'Connor@gen2.ac.uk • Phone: 01900 701300

Overview	Response
	Our support processes remain unchanged throughout this transition and beyond.
In short	Your partnership with Gen2 continues with the same specialist expertise and dedication.